

WILL BE RATIFIED

Hon. Clark Howell Interviews Many Congressmen on the Peace Treaty.

VERY BADLY SEVERED PARTY LINES.

Many Democrats Will Vote in Favor of the Treaty and Some Republicans Will Oppose It.

Out of the Vote May Be Furnished the Battle Crisis Around Which Will Be Formed the Lines of the Next Presidential Fight.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Clark Howell, member of the democratic national committee from Georgia and editor of the Atlanta Constitution, after consulting with the leaders of both of the political parties at Washington, telegraphed his views to his paper Wednesday night.

"With the adjournment of congress, for the holidays the final decision on the peace treaty is as clear as it will be after a vote has been taken in the senate. Two weeks ago the matter was in doubt—today it is certain that the treaty will be ratified as it will be that it has after the vote has been taken."

"Mr. Bryan has been in Washington for several days and has conferred frequently and freely with the democratic leaders in the house. He has advised ratification of the treaty, and he is outspoken in the opinion that aside from the question of national obligation it is a matter of party policy for the democrats to throw no obstacle in the way of ratification. There are leading democrats of both the senate and house who less than a week ago were in doubt as to whether the democrats should assist in ratifying the treaty; more than that, some of them were outspoken in the opinion that it was perhaps better to reject it. Wednesday many of these democratic leaders take open position that the treaty should be ratified, and that it will be no one who has studied the situation from the inside can have any reasonable doubt. It may not be understood that the adoption of the treaty will go with it the assumption that all those who vote affirmatively are in favor of national expansion across the Pacific. Of the senators who will vote in favor of the treaty there will be republicans as well as democrats who are opposed in principle as well as in theory to the trans-oceanic expansion of our national domain. They take, however, and very properly, the view that the question of expansion per se, is not involved in the consideration of the peace treaty and that after the treaty has been ratified and Spain has been eliminated as a factor in the Philippine problem, it will be time enough to consider the policy to be pursued in dealing with the Philippines, and just here will come the real contest on the question of expansion."

Mr. Howell further says that "the vote of the republicans will not be confused by any means to party lines and the outcome is in doubt. A large majority of the democrats will vote in favor of it and a large majority of the republicans will vote against it, but the size of either minority is sufficiently involved in doubt as to render exceedingly questionable the final action that will be taken on the resolution."

"The republicans as a body will favor the ratification of the peace treaty and will oppose any further action. They will hold that it will be time enough to cross the Philippine bridge when they get to it, and in the meantime the islands should be held under strict military government and that, if in God's own time it is demonstrated that the Filipinos are able to take care of themselves and deserve to remain a government of their own, it will be time enough for the United States to take up the question and act accordingly."

Mr. Howell's summary concludes as follows:

"As the result of the final encounter over the resolution it may be that the country will witness the spectacle of badly severed party lines and that out of it may be furnished the battle crisis around which will be fought the lines of the next presidential fight."

A CROWD WATCHED THE DUEL.

Two Men Open Fire on Each Other in Chicago—Empty Cartridges Prevented Both Losing Their Lives.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—In the midst of crowds of pedestrians in Kinzie street, close to the passenger depot of the North Western, on Wednesday night, two men engaged in a desperate encounter with revolvers. One of them was killed and the other probably owes his life to the fact that his antagonist's weapon contained an empty cartridge.

Deputy F. Riley, a detective employed by the Chicago & Northwestern railway, was the victim of the encounter, and his slayer is John D. Riese, a mill hand of Forest Park, Ill.

The two men had at one time been friends, but lately they had become estranged because of a business deal. A large crowd witnessed the duel.

ETHAN ALLEN HITCHCOCK.
The President Appoints Him as Successor to Secretary of the Interior—Long May Also Reign.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Ethan A. Hitchcock, of Missouri, was Wednesday nominated by the president as secretary of the interior.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22.—Ethan Allen Hitchcock is at present ambassador to Russia. He was a millionaire merchant in this city. He has always been a strong and active republican and is a personal friend of President McKinley.

COULDN'T MAKE A WILL.

Injustice of One of Kentucky's Moss-Covered Laws.

RIGHTS OF WOMEN IGNORED.

The Portsmouth Blade says Attorney Robert C. Myers has filed in the Greenup County Court a petition which opens up a strange and romantic case.

Carrie Ann Tyler of South Portsmouth, who is well known all along the river, is plaintiff in the case.

In 1874 she was married in Portsmouth to a man named John W. Ford of Greenup county, and as far as she has had no relative in the world. Left an orphan at the age of 11, she has made her own way to the world, and has been employed as a waitress for the local packers.

After her marriage, as she had $400 and Captain Tyler $1,400, they purchased property with the sum, it being paid by Mrs. Tyler.

The wife, however, died in 1882, and at Mrs. Tyler's death she was to the dead property. They traded the Portsmouth property for a farm in the Joy section for Dr. Ford, in memory of his wife, and he has since died.

The estate was left to Mrs. Tyler's son, Fred Sheppard, who died in 1898.

She died in 1898 and made a will leaving all her property to her husband. Under the old condition of Kentucky a married woman could not make a will, so it will be seen that the will was probated, however, and no questions asked.

Carrie Ann lately learned that he had not title to the property and has engaged another attorney to bring suit against the unknown heirs of his wife to enforce the oral contract made so many years ago. If this cannot be done, she will then hold the land for the Sabbath of Portsmouth lawyers.

Because it is attracting much attention among Portsmouth lawyers.

Dr. Ford, aged 51, a soldier, staying at the Pacific Garden house, at Third street and Western avenue, cut his throat from ear to ear Wednesday morning and will probably die. Dr. Toman was called and said that death might ensue at any time. The dead was committed with a pocket knife. He had been drinking heavily.
